

POSITION AVAILABLE

The Washington State Labor Council, AFL-CIO, and the Association of Washington Business are presently seeking resumes and references from persons interested in being recommended for possible appointment as the Public Member and Chair of the Washington State Board of Industrial Insurance Appeals. The Chair serves a six-year term ending June 16, 2015. Current Chair will serve until a replacement is selected.

The Chair is appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the senate and must be a member of the Washington State Bar Association. The Chair and two other board member positions are full-time and are the directors of the agency.

Applicants must have knowledge and experience in industrial insurance law and practice; be familiar with the Washington Industrial Insurance Safety and Health Act (WISHA) and the Crime Victims Compensation Act; the ability to manage a staff of professional, administrative and clerical employees; and the ability to develop and implement an $18.2 million per year budget.

The Board of Industrial Insurance Appeals is a quasi-judicial agency with jurisdiction over Industrial Insurance (workers' compensation), WISHA, and the Crime Victims Compensation Act. The Board's function is to hear and decide disputes related to orders, decisions and awards of the Department of Labor and Industries. Its mission is to serve the public by resolving appeals in a consistent, impartial, timely and efficient manner.

The Board's office is located in Olympia. This is a full-time position that pays up to $130,000 per year.

All resumes must be received by 5:00 p.m. on Monday, August 10, 2009. Interviews will be conducted in Olympia at an as-yet-to-be-determined date. A copy of your resume and references should be sent to each of the following:
